Mahadevapura, Khudapura, Gowdagere & Gavripura from Naikanhatti is not noted in the records. The Shekdar's report dt 12/6/25 states that the distance is 3 miles while the Amildar's recommendation vdt dt 23/6/25 gives different figures in columns 4 and 5 thereof. It is perhaps necessary to ascertain the exact distance of each village from Naikanhatti.

The distance from Naikanhatti is within 3 miles. Col 5 refers to distances between the villages

4. There is nothing in the records sent up to show clearly that the people of the 4 villages ~~do have clearly met~~ want a village Munsiff's Court & have no objection to these villages being tacked on to the Court proposed for Naikanhatti. The mahajars referred to in the Rev Com's letter merely show that the signatories thereto agree to the appointment of Sri Rudrappa, Patel of Naikanhatti as village Munsiff for the Court. The proposal to attach the villages to the said Court emanated from the Amildar (vide his order dt 18/3/25 to the Shekdar), but the willingness of the villagers has not been specifically ascertained.

Their consent for the Court is implied

5) The recommendation may perhaps be approved. The villages are within 3 miles of Naikanhatti where the Court is proposed to be located. Draft is submitted for orders.
